TRDA offers free intellectual property seminar

The Technological Research and Development Authority (TRDA) will host a free seminar on "Practical Corporate and Intellectual Property Issues for Emerging Companies" on Wednesday, May 21, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the TRDA Business Innovation Center, 1050 West NASA Blvd., in Melbourne. Attorneys Mark Terzola and Terry Brennan, partners at Roetzel & Andress in Orlando, will present the seminar. Terzola's main focus is intellectual property with emphasis in procurement, technology transfer, licensing, litigation, dispute resolution, acquisition, divestiture, and international and domestic intellectual property estate management. Brennan advises clients on a broad range of technology-related transactions, including product development joint ventures and strategic alliances. With roughly 230 attorneys and 10 offices located in Ohio, Florida and Washington, D.C., their firm serves a broad spectrum of clients on a regional, national and international level. To register for the seminar, contact Bonnie O'Regan at boregan@trda.org, or call 872-1050, extension 107.
